

HAPPY (Holiday) TRAILS from the PAINTED PONIES

Like Rudolph on that foggy Christmas Eve, the Painted Ponies are lighting up the Holiday Season with a half-million dollars for New Mexico not-for-profits... with more to come.

"Thank you so much for your gift of $32,000, our share of the proceeds from the sale of a beautiful painted pony called When They Ran With Freedom by Benjamin Nelson. Your gift will enable us to provide more than 100,000 meals to people in need in our community... please accept our gratitude for the important part you played in the fight against hunger"

*Sherry Hooper,
The Food Depot*

"Thank you for all your hard work on the Painted Pony project. The College will use the proceeds from Desert Dream Horse to subsidize counseling services for low-income clients and to help fund general operating expenses. It would be great to participate again next year."

Luci Wienczkowski, Southwestern College

Rod Barker, Executive Director of The Trail of Painted Ponies, presents $32,000 to Sherry Hooper of The Food Depot.

"It was with a great deal of appreciation that Santa Fe Habitat for Humanity received checks totaling over $52,000 at HorsePower's presentation. As Co-Chair of our Fundraising Committee, I can assure you that this event was not only our most profitable project, but also the most enjoyable."

*Paul Goblet,
Santa Fe Habitat for Humanity*

"You have been and continue to be great supporters of New Mexico and the non-profit communities. With the terrible events of September 11, 2001, the non-profits of NM have experienced a great reduction in their financial support. Your project may very well allow some non-profits to continue to exist and care for those who are in need of their services."

*Maryle Barber,
Casa Esperanza*
