

Fall 2011
21st Release

The Magical Swan

The Magical Swan

Artist: Maria Ryan

In legend and myth, Swans are gloriously large, snow-white birds that represent beauty, purity and, because of their long-lasting monogamous relationships, fidelity. The symbolic power of the swan lies in accepting the gift of change, as over their lifetime Swans evolve from "ugly ducklings" in their youth, to elegant and graceful adults.

In a similar fashion, the horse also grows from a gangly colt into a majestic stallion. Likewise, the life-long bond between a horse and rider is much like the pairing of two Swans.

"The Magical Swan" combines the Horse and Swan a single, magnificent creature whose loveliness and energy is enhanced by its reflections in a sparkling, mirrored base.

www.trailofpaintedponies.com

TM and © 2010 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.
© 2010 Enesco LLC.

4021360

Buckskin

Buckskin

Artist: Amber Sielesnew

This spirited, horse is playfully wrapped in dollar bills, or bucks, which gives new meaning to the term "Buckskin!" Make no mistake, this Painted Pony has escaped from the US Treasury and is here to entertain. Which President of the United States is featured on the dollar bill? Whose signatures are on a dollar bill? Who is the current Secretary of the Treasury? Can you find the year that these bills were created? What does the great pyramid on the dollar bill represent? Who knew money was so beautiful and so much fun!

www.trailofpaintedponies.com

TM and © 2011 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.

4025998

Cowgirls Rule

Cowgirls Rule

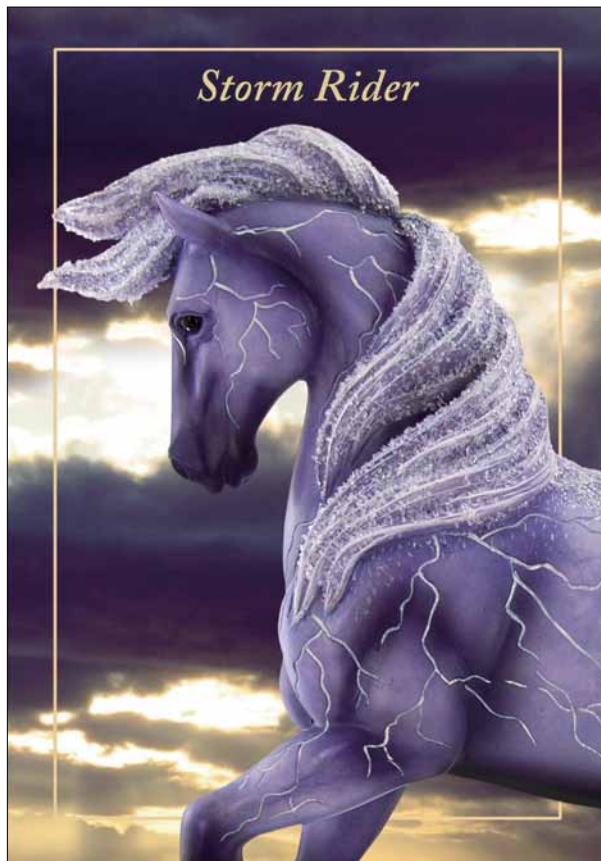

Artist: Sue Sizemore

"Cowgirls Rule" is a charming tribute to all the wonderful women who have chosen to take life by the reins! If you have ever dreamed of warm summer evenings on a western ranch, listening to the twang of a country guitar under a blanket of stars, then you are a cowgirl at heart. Let these vintage cowgirls take you back in time...

www.trailofpaintedponies.com

TM and © 2011 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.

4026390

Storm Rider

Storm Rider

Artist: Rod Barker and Lauren Reeser

The sky darkens ominously. Gusting blasts of wind kick up dust. Z-bolts of lightning flash from cloud-to-ground like jagged spears thrown by an angry mythological god. There is a sudden loud crack of thunder that sounds like the floorboards of Heaven have collapsed under the weight of the rain, snow and hail that pour down from above, as "Storm Rider" charges across the landscape, snorting, rearing, and bucking like a wild stallion.

www.trailofpaintedponies.com

TM and © 2011 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.

4026392