

Fall 2016
41st Release

Ribbons of Love

Ribbons of Love

Artist: Susan Sizemore

The artist had the name "horse lover" in mind when she created a design that featured a pink horse wrapped in free-flowing ribbons that hold red and gold hearts, and frame the portrait of a magnificent silver stallion....

www.paintedponies.com

TM and © 2016 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.

4055525

Wrecking Bull

Wrecking Bull

Artist: Karlynn Keyes

The hottest celebrities on the Rodeo Circuit today are the professional bull riders - those rough and tumble cowboys who strive for an eight second ride on the back of a leaping, spinning, 2,000 pound beast that is all muscle and meanness. As anyone who has seen a bull riding event knows, it is a thrilling, dangerous, action-packed sport whose spirit and appeal is perfectly captured in "Wrecking Bull."

www.paintedponies.com

TM and © 2016 The Trail of Painted Ponies, Inc.

4055525

Navajo Chief

THE TRAIL OF PAINTED PONIES

Navajo Chief

Artist: Karlynn Keyes

Distinguished by diamond patterns, indigo blue stripes, and dyed red yarns, Navajo Chief blankets are the most recognizable and valuable of all Navajo weavings. Prized and traded for by wealthy and powerful members of Plains Tribes long before the white man set foot on the land that became known as America, they were especially valued as saddle blankets, where they communicated the tribal status and rank of the rider.

www.paintedponies.com