

The Trail of Painted Ponies

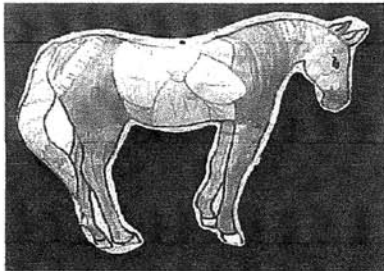

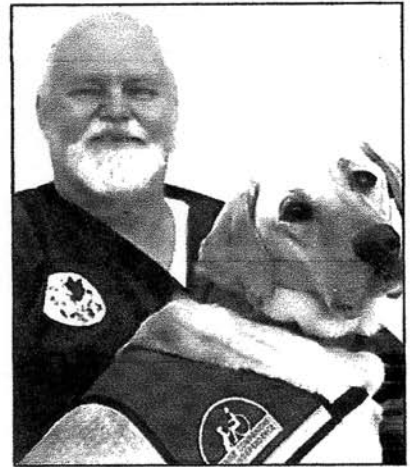

MAKING A DIFFERENCE!

"HorsePower New Mexico deserves a big thank you for their efforts in planning, organizing and realizing this event. The importance of independent projects, undertaken by enterprising young organizations that see an opportunity, take the initiative, and find a way to make it happen, cannot be overestimated."
— Governor Gary Johnson

"My name is Richard Hammond and I would like to thank you for your generous support of Canine Companions for Independence... It is so important that you know that without people like you there would not be people like me. I want to thank you so much for your help, but somehow thank you just isn't enough. So I say God bless you and keep you in the palm of His hand."

— Richard Hammond & Lupe
(A disabled client served by Canine Companions)

"Fashioning our own Painted Ponies has helped students learn the importance of generosity, and that it's possible to use one's creativity to earn money for charities. The kids thoroughly loved this project and hopefully will be inspired to support both the arts and charitable giving as adults. That's significant learning."

— Ms. Sheila Hofstedt
Governor Bent Elementary School

"The Trail of Painted Ponies has been a great thing for tourism in New Mexico, which benefits everyone in the state. No one else could have accomplished what you did... and you did it on your own. You did not let unforeseen hurdles and obstacles get in the way of your vision, you persevered. Your project has been a success, and you are to be congratulated."

— Randy Randall, General Manager
Eldorado Hotel and State Tourism Commissioner

"I would like to thank you once again for the direct impact that The Trail of Painted Ponies had on Santa Fe Habitat for Humanity... Your project directly contributed over $40,000 to the Women's Build, which covered the cost of the lot for this year's single mother, Rose Grogg, and her two children. To say that she is excited and grateful simply doesn't capture the depth of her feelings."

— Paul Goblet, VP Santa Fe Habitat for Humanity
